Yogasana Competition – Rulebook

Organized by Yoga & Meditation Club, NIT Patna

● Eligibility - The Yoga Competition is open to all students of NIT Patna.

● Categories – The competition will be conducted in two separate divisions:

- Male Category
- Female Category

Participants will be judged separately within their respective categories.

● Competition Structure - The competition will be divided into three parts:

PART	ACTIVITY	MARKS
PART 1	SURYA NAMASKAR	10
PART 2	COMPULSORY ASANAS	40
PART 3	OPTIONAL ASANAS	30
	TOTAL MARKS	80

● Event Flow - Each participant must perform a total of:

- 1 Surya Namaskar
- 4 Compulsory Asanas
- 3 Optional Asanas

Each asana must be held according to the prescribed time limit.

- Compulsory Asana: - Each posture must be held for 30sec.
- Optional Asana: - Each posture must be held for 20sec.

The performance will be judged based on stability, alignment, and the final posture.

Part 1: Surya Namaskar

● Participants must perform one complete round of Surya Namaskar consisting of 12 counts.

● Participants must maintain:

- Proper posture and alignment
- Smooth transitions between each position
- Controlled breathing during the sequence.

Part 2: Compulsory Asanas

● Participants must perform four compulsory Yoga Asanas.

● These asanas will be common for all participants and must be performed with proper posture and balance.

● Each asana must be held for 30 seconds with correct alignment and stability.

Part 3: Optional Asanas

● Participants must perform three optional Yoga Asanas of their choice.

● Each asana must be held for 20 seconds with correct alignment and stability.

● These asanas should demonstrate flexibility, balance, and body control. Participants are encouraged to select asanas that best highlight their strength, stability, and yogic skills.

Judging Criteria

● A panel of judges will evaluate participants based on:

- Way of Performance – Grace, balance, and smooth transitions
- Final Posture – Correct alignment and stability
- Holding Time – Maintaining the pose for the required duration
- Expression – Calmness, concentration, and breath control

Deduction Rules

● Marks may be deducted for the following:

- Incorrect posture or poor alignment
- Loss of balance during the performance
- Failure to hold the pose for the required time
- Lack of stability in the final posture
- Improper transitions between poses

● The extent of deduction will be determined by the panel of judges.

General Rules

●Participants must report to the venue before the reporting time.

●Participants must wear appropriate yoga attire suitable for performance.

●The decision of the judges will be final and binding.
